

SW SUSTAINABILITY SOLUTIONS INC. HAS COMMITTED TO GREENHOUSE GAS REDUCTION: OUR RECOGNITION FROM SBTi STRENGTHENS OUR CREDIBILITY AND COMMITMENT

SCIENCE BASED TARGETS

DRIVING AMBITIOUS CORPORATE CLIMATE ACTION

WHAT IS IT?

SBTi, a collaborative effort by organizations like CDP, UN Global Compact, WRI, and WWF, enables companies globally to set GHG reduction targets aligned with climate science, aiming to limit temperature rise below 2°C. In Malaysia, only 10 companies with approved targets have committed, while the United States has 527 companies with approved targets. As of March 26, 2024, the number of companies with approved targets may vary*

SBTi AND YOU

The connection between our SBTi commitment and our customers lies in our shared dedication to sustainability and environmental stewardship. Aligning with SBTi's targets, we're committed to reducing greenhouse gas emissions, benefiting the planet and resonating with eco-conscious customers prioritizing low-carbon businesses. Our recognition from SBTi strengthens our credibility and our commitment to greenhouse gas reduction.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

Near-term targets outline the amount by which organizations will reduce their emissions by 2030, the first step in establishing Net Zero targets. SBTi recognized our commitment to reducing greenhouse gas emissions in line with scientific recommendations, contributing to a sustainable and low-carbon emission future.

WHO ARE MEMBERS?

Companies like AstraZeneca, Procter & Gamble (P&G), Pfizer, and Kellogg Company are among the global leaders committed to this initiative.

WHAT IS OUR TARGET?

Reduce absolute scope 1 & scope 2 GHG emissions 42% by 2030 from 2022 base year.
